Tampere – The World's Sauna Capital

Tampere – The Sauna Capital of the World – welcomes everybody to its cosy warmth!

We have over 30 public saunas in the region for anyone to relax in, throughout the year. We indulge in particular those who love hot steam and ice-cold water, as our region offers the most numerous possibilities in Finland to enjoy this addictive combination.

Us Tampereans are known for our authenticity and warmth. The same goes for our sauna culture. In sauna we all are equal – and we have public saunas for every taste.

For more saunas, visit www.visittampere.fi/en/sauna-capital

Sauna-Restaurant Kuuma at Laukontori

One of the newest additions to Tampere's sauna scene, offers a chance to dip into the Ratina bay between sauna-going, as well as watch the Finnish Silverline ships float by from the upper deck. www.saunaravintolakuuma.com

Rauhaniemi

This lakeside sauna is always packed with locals as well as enthusiastic visitors. Stay in the hot sauna as long as you can and then cool off in Näsijärvi lake, summer or winter. Don't forget to take a photo to prove it! www.rauhaniemi.net/in-english

Kaupinoja

Some like it hot! Kaupinoja is one of the most popular public saunas in Tampere, situated close to the center and of course by a lake. Open practically daily throughout the year. Try this and you live like a local. www.talviuimarit.fi/kaupinojan-sauna/kaupinoja-sauna-in-english

Rajaportti

The oldest public sauna in Finland still in use, here you'll really get into the traditional way of sauna-going. Let the locals show you how it's done! www.rajaportinsauna.fi

Incentives & Conference Groups in Tampere

Tampere is just 1½ hours north from Helsinki by train or by flight straight to Tampere airport. Tampere is a growing destination in Finland for Incentive and Conference groups. The largest inland city in the Nordic region, it enjoys a stunning location, surrounded by lakes, and blends beautiful and delicate nature with a bustling city rich in culture and nightlife. With venues holding up to 2000, there is plenty to offer Conference groups, as well as Incentive programmes that are fresh and exciting.

From December to March the city is transformed into a winter wonderland. Outdoor activities can include fun team games such as kick sledging, snowmobiling, ice fishing, or skating on a frozen lake. A sauna and ice swimming combo is a unique and unforgettable experience, and with snowshoe walking in the forest plus wellness treatments, it's a healthy option.

Day 1 - Island get-together

Experience the beauty of the city's natural location with a cruise to Viikinsaari Island. Welcome Dinner & programme featuring Finnish yard games and traditional outdoor dancing.

Day 2 - The Amazing Race Tampere

AM: Morning Meeting/Conference at the hotel.

PM: A fun way to get to know the city with an "Amazing Race Tampere" event. Complete tasks in teams discovering the local industrial heritage, the storybook Moomin characters, and award-winning local beers. Tasks can also be according to a theme like Sustainability which may inspire participants to make some changes in their daily operations.

Evening: Food Creation Workshop & Dinner at the historic Villa Sofia or alternative venue depending on group size. Food workshop can have a theme like introduction to vegetarian or vegan menus.

Day 3 - Forest art

Head out into the surrounding nature to Mänttä for an inspiring visit to Art Museum Gösta.

Discover your hidden creative talents in an Art Workshop lead by a local artist.

Evening: Farewell Gala Dinner in historic palace from the 19th century.

Day 4 - Wellness experience

Choose an outdoor activity: canoeing, cycling or hiking, or relax with spa treatments. Everyone gets to experience traditional Finnish sauna. Lunch at Vaihmalan Hovi Manor House before continuing to the airport.

Welcome to Helsinki

Tampere on the South coast of Finland. It is a vibrant green parks. You can sense the proximity of the water everywhere, as the sea surrounds the city on three sides. Helsinki has 130 km of shoreline and 300 islands. Helsinki is a city that surprises with elements that come together in a completely unique way. Despite its energy, the city hasn't surrendered its tranquillity, silence and clean air. Helsinki is a dream city for walking: it is easy to breathe, there is always something new and interesting just around the corner, and the distances are short. As a compact city, nature is never more than a stone throw away. Cultural experiences and multiple nature activities fit in the same day. Helsinki wants to be the most functional city in the world – for locals and

Some cities drain all your energy, in Helsinki you will be recharged!

Helsinki, the capital city, lies 160 km south from Helsinki - a lively art city with a sustainable attitude

Year 2021 will bring about the first edition of a new cultural hub with an amazing archipelago and lush international art event; Helsinki Biennial. The Biennial will take place on the Vallisaari Island and combines outstanding contemporary art and the unique Helsinki archipelago. The artworks presented will be site-specific or otherwise in dialogue with the island. The picturesque and delicate maritime surroundings set the framework for Helsinki Biennial's core values of sustainability and responsibility. Accessibility is further enhanced by lack of admission fees to the Biennial. As a city, Helsinki is committed to promoting a more sustainable way of life. The Think Sustainably service invites also visitors to make informed choices during their stay in Helsinki by listing restaurants, cafés, events and sights that are committed on sustainable values. Helsinki - Top Restaurants

Finnish Food with a twist: Juuri

Authentic flavours, wanton passion, wild herbs, crazy ideas, love for artisan produce and the skill to make incredibly tasty food. This is what Juuri is made of.

Address: Korkeavuorenkatu 27

Timeless charm: Atelje Finne

The sculptor Gunnar Finne had his ateljé at Arkadiankatu 14 in the 1920's. In the 1960's the place was transformed into a restaurant. The menu of Atelje Finne focuses on high quality Finnish ingredients.

Address: Arkadiankatu 14

Casual and intimate with high quality: Natura

Natura is an intimate, family-run restaurant in which uncompromising quality and relaxed social gatherings go hand in hand. The young, highly-professional team draws on experience gained at one, two and three-star Michelin restaurants in Finland, France, England, Spain and the Netherlands. The menu is built round Finnish small scale producers and local ingredients, dishes are made from raw ingredients of only the highest quality, preferably organic and Fair Trade, prepared in an open kitchen within view of client. There are three tasting menus to choose from, or dishes can be ordered individually from the à la carte list.

Address: Iso Roobertinkatu 11

Finnish: Savotta

Finnish restaurant Savotta's kitchen cherishes Finnish food tradition. The interior decoration is inspired by a dash of Finnish nostalgy from the past decades and logging and forestry traditions.

Address: Aleksanterinkatu 22

Lappish: Kultá Kitchen & Bar

At the core of Kultá Kitchen & Bar, you can find the majestic and beautiful north at its best. The northern roots are valued so much that the purest ingredients such as game, reindeer, mushrooms, lichen and birch leaves are brought straight from Lapland.

Address: Bulevardi 28

Fine Dining: Nolla

Nolla is a fine dining restaurant that produces zero food waste – its name is Finnish for "Zero". The restaurant first opened in the Kruununhaka district but has since moved to Fredrikinkatu, where the stylish Serbian design tables and chairs and splendid modern Kustaa Saksi tapestries make it look brand new. The concept of Southern European fine dining based on seasonal organic ingredients created by Carlos Henriques, Luka Balac and Albert Franch Sunyer remains the same with its impressive tasting menu and minimal waste, but now the restaurant also boasts its own artisan brewery and a beer and wine bar that serves snacks without having to make table reservation.

Address: Fredrikinkatu 22

Vege-heaven
